Headline:

Mainly dry with sunny spells.

Today:

A dry and bright morning with some good spells of sunshine, however cloud will bubble up and, while most places will remain dry, one or two showers will develop. With mainly light winds it will feel warm in the sunshine. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:

Some evening sunshine in north and west but increasing cloud brings outbreaks of showery rain to eastern counties by midnight. Mostly cloudy overnight with occasional rain for most. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Wednesday:

A cloudy start with outbreaks of rain but soon becoming brighter with a few sunny spells developing along with occasional showers. The showers becoming heavy, perhaps thundery, in the afternoon. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:

Continuing showery with clear or sunny spells, the showers may merge into longer spells of rain at times. Feeling quite warm in the sunshine with mainly light winds.
